Student/Parent Handbook & Discipline Code

STUDENT'S SIGNATURE

WELCOME

A high school is something more than a school, it is a complex set of traditions and influences. The lessons learned in its classrooms make up but a small part of the education which it offers.

This student/parent handbook has been prepared for the express purpose of presenting information which should help you adjust to the program of education in our school. READ THIS HANDBOOK CAREFULLY. It will help you answer questions about your educational needs and what will be expected of you. Take this book home to let your parents read it.

The community, faculty, and student body are proud of the standing and reputation of our high school. As our student body changes, it is hoped that we can always maintain the traditional warm, friendly, and respectful atmosphere throughout our school. The primary objective of our school is to provide you with the finest academic training possible. In addition to the many curricular offerings, there are numerous other activities in which students may participate. By joining in school activity programs, you have an opportunity to gain lasting friendships and a chance to share in the development of our school.

We challenge you to take pride in your school and make every effort to enhance its position of eminence and prestige. You, the student body, will have the greatest impact on the direction of the school, and you will be the greatest benefactor of this contribution. A consistent, diligent, serious application to your studies; daily attendance; participation in the extra-curricular programs; and devotion to the traditions and standards of our high school will return dividends to you and your community in years to come.

We extend to each of you a personal wish for a successful, profitable, and happy year at Harrison Community High School.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. House Principal	Russell A. Fimbin ger Assistant Principal

“HARRISON FIGHT SONG”

Cheer! Cheer! for old Harrison High
See her bright colors high in the sky,
Cheer her team to bring her fame,
sing out the praises of her name.
Cheer though the score be great or small.
As we cheer, our team is fighting onward to victory!
RAH! RAH! RAH!
